MESEA WEBINAR SERIES 2021

i-Arbitration Rules in MESEA

'i' stands for Islamic (إسلامي) (Islamik)

The i-Arbitration Rules is the first set of arbitration rules in the world that caters for the resolution of disputes arising from commercial contracts containing Shariah issues. It adopts the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Arbitration Rules that ensures international enforceability. This product of the AIAC has the potential to leverage on the strong Islamic Finance infrastructure prevailing in many jurisdictions in the Middle East as well as South-East Asia towards resolution of related disputes. This webinar provides an overview of i-Arbitration Rules, Shariah Compliant Finance and Applicable Laws, Composition of i-Arbitral tribunal, and the i-Arbitral procedure. The panelists will endeavour to elaborate the powers and duties of an i-Arbitral tribunal and the enforceability of Islamic Finance Arbitration Awards under the New York Convention. This webinar will also highlight the Islamic finance industry perspective and recommendations towards modernizing the i-Arbitration Rules to meet the demands of 2020s decade.
